

The use of cell phones immediately landing I believe to be safety hazard because they are a source of distraction in case of an emergency during taxi. Most emergency situations are unplanned and passengers attention would not be directed to the important information given by the flight crew.